November Community Meeting

PLEASE JOIN US FOR THE COMMUNITY MEETING

Date: Wednesday November 13, 2019
Time: 7:00 pm
Location: Thurgood Marshall Middle School
 4909 Brinkley Road, Camp Springs, MD 20748

Note: If Prince George's County Public Schools are closed for any reason on the meeting date, go to the CSCA website or contact a Board of Director listed on the newsletter, for an update on the scheduled meetings.

Feature Topic: Vice-President Candis Stretcher will moderate a panel of representatives from four local non-profit organizations at the Nov. 13 community meeting. They will cover major aspects of what they do in the community and answer your questions. There will also be a special presentation on veteran's affairs from Dr. James Dula. Our COP's officers will give crime updates and Membership Chair Monique Taylor will give a membership update. Please spread the word and bring a neighbor or friend to our Nov. 13 meeting.

Thank you, Camp Springs residents who helped with the county clean up "Growing Green with Pride" on October 19. Board member, Arlene Wilson, you're the best!

The community enjoyed "Trunk or Treat" with the Camp Springs Civic Association and First Baptist Church of Camp Springs.

New Job Center to Open Near National Harbor in 2020

Prince George's County Executive Angela D. Alsobrooks, members of County Council, Employ Prince George's and the Prince George's County Local Workforce Development Board recently announced that a new American Job Center for Prince George's County will open in January 2020 at Tanger Outlets in Oxon Hill. The American Job Center will offer a full range of assistance and support resources to job seekers and businesses in Southern Prince George's County.

Prince George's County to Celebrate Native American Day in 2020

The Prince George's County Council will officially recognize the history, culture, and accomplishments of Native Americans in the county and across the nation, starting in 2020. In October, the County Council adopted legislation, CB-008-2019, renaming the October Columbus Day holiday to Native American Day in Prince George's County.

Justice for Our Youth

What does justice look like for teenagers in Prince George's County?

State's Attorney Aisha N.

Braveboy, Council Member Calvin Hawkins, School Board Member Joshua Omolola and the students and faculty at Bowie State University will hold a discussion on youth justice reform at Bowie State University on Nov. 15, 9 am to 12 noon.

They will discuss policies around youth justice reform, ways to end the school to prison pipeline and diversion. The discussion will include youth justice policies ranging from diversion to improving public safety, collaboration between stakeholders in the system and better outcomes for youth.

For more information, contact: LaKeecia Allen at 301-952-4416 or lrallen@co.pg.md.us. While the event is free and open to the public, if you would like to attend please RSVP at click here to register.

Don't Forget the Homeless.....

Socks are among the most requested but least donated items at homeless shelters. The Prince George's Police Community Service Division through their PAL mentorship program is hosting a community service project that will support people experiencing homelessness in our community. They are asking for donations of NEW socks. Drop them off at any district station in the county now through Nov. 15th. On Nov. 16, these socks will be given to the homeless and shelters in the area.
